

ACLA & BONNER CONSULTING PRESENT

Facilitation Skills Training

for LIBRARIES, NONPROFITS & COMMUNITY PARTNERS

In this era of collaboration, community conversations, and with no time to waste on unproductive internal meetings, being able to facilitate a group is becoming an in-demand professional skill and a nonprofit organizational competency.

Basic Facilitation Skills
NEW SESSION ADDED
JUNE 7: 9:00 – 1:00
Baldwin Public Library

Registration is free for all those working within ACLA Member Libraries. There is a $10 fee for all others.

Registration is required. Please email acla@einetwork.net to register

“This was a great introduction to facilitation skills. I look forward to more productive and efficient meetings after implementing what I learned.”
